THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1875.

AN INDISPENSIBLE CONDITION.

The New York Tribune says that Secretary Bristow has reduced the cost of collecting the revenue nearly ten per cent. Commenting on this the St. Louis Democrat says "that is just the sort of work the Republican party needs." In another place, of the same issue, the Democrat uses the following sensible language:

What we desire to point out especially at this time is the fact that the Republicans cannot afford to weary in well-doing. They have but indicated a policy which must be firmly and faithfully carried out to the end if they would succeed. The unloading must continue. Unworthy men must be tossed overboard. Unjust or unsafe measures must be repudiated. An honorable, peaceful and statesmanlike policy must be urged by all the means which the party yet has at command. Its press must faithfully and fearlessly represent the opinion of its best elements. Its conventions in the several States must speak frankly, and nominate wisely. Reforms, such as Secretary Bristow is making in the cost of collecting the revenue, and Postmaster General Jewell is making in his department, must be prosecuted with vigor in all branches of the public service.

"The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

PATRONIZE A NEWSPAPER.

How many think Daniel Webster spoke truly when he said: "Small as the sum that is required to patronize a newspaper, and amply rewarded is its patron, I care not how humble and unpretending the gazette which he takes. It is next to impossible to fill a sheet with printed matter without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price. Every parent whose son is away from home at school should supply him with a newspaper. I well remember what a marked difference there was between those of my school-mates who had and those who had not access to newspapers. Other things being equal, the first were always superior in debate, composition and general attainments."

MICHIGAN ELECTION.—The State of Michigan also holds an election next Monday, at which are to be chosen two Supreme Court Judges, two Regents of the State University at Large, Judges of the twenty Circuit Courts, Superintendents of the Schools, etc. The result last year was close, and the contest will be exciting this time. One of the Supreme Court Judges is to fill the vacancy caused by the election to the United States Senate of Judge Christy.

There is a good thing on the "tater bag." Three men comparing notes. One says, "There are two bugs to every stalk." A second says, "They have cut down my early crop and are sitting on the fence waiting for my late crop to come up." "Pshaw!" said the third, "you know nothing about it. I passed a seed store the other day and saw the bugs looking over the books to see who had purchased seed potatoes."

The Mormon residents of Washoe Valley continue to hold religious services at their meeting-house in Franktown.

The New York Tribune says Beecher's face does not purple with emotion, because he, as well as Tilton, is as hearty as a buck.

About the 1st of May, Carl Schurz and his family will sail for Europe and pass the summer in Germany and Switzerland.

Andy Johnson carries a buff silk handkerchief with a bright red border. After this who will think of carrying him with another nose-

EASTERN DISPATCHES!

Miners' Strike.

HAZELSHON, Pa., March 31.

Another crowd of armed men have started from Elbervale for Upper Lehigh to stop the men employed by the Jersey Central Railroad from loading coal at that place. A special train has left here with a detachment of police armed to resist any attempt at violence by the mob. The result of this raiding is awaited with great anxiety. Our local police is too small to contend with the exasperated miners and a call for the military is expected. A despatch from Upper Lehigh announces the killing of McDermott, one of the bosses there. Last night coffin-handbills were served on all men obtaining coal for boilers at Eckley's colliery. The whole region is in a state of great excitement. The raiders are called "Landerburns' Regiment," from the fact that Landerburns has been selling them condemned Government muskets.

Settled—Beecher's Trial.

NEW YORK, March 31.

Daniel Drew is on Wall street settling the contracts which were due yesterday.

The attendance in the Brooklyn City Court this morning was in marked contrast with the crush and crowd of yesterday. Beecher was absent, as was Mrs. Tilton and her friends. The examination of Charles Storrs was continued. He testified that in an interview with Moulton in December last, the latter denounced Beecher as a liar, perjurer and adulterer, and threatened him with personal violence. The cross examination by Beecher developed nothing new except that in 1871 or 1872 Tilton spoke to the witness about prosecuting some one for slandering his wife. The witness here remarked that he didn't think he ought to give names, and after a whispered consultation between Beecher and Tilton the former told witness that he need not. The witness continued; Tilton said this person had reported to the family of a Mr. Curtis that Mrs. Tilton was a lewd woman and that he saw the husband of that party telling the story and thought there was no remedy but in the prosecution of the witness. He repeated Moulton's charge made against Beecher in 1874 and added that he threatened to drive Beecher out of Plymouth Church and Brooklyn. When Beecher called him a blackmailer, he (Moulton) said it was time he was acting on the defensive. He also said if the witness' brother signed the report of the Committee; he would have to make a statement which would cross my threshold and break my heart. On re-direct examination the witness said the story told was that she had committed adultery with Beecher. Mrs. Mary F. Perkins, a sister to H. W. Beecher, was the next witness. She testified that she spent the Winter of 1872 with her brother, going in December, 1871, and staying until April, 1872. She was in the habit of receiving her brother's guests, but did not in that Winter see Mrs. Tilton. During the first week in June, 1873, while the witness was at her son's house in Roxbury, Mass., her brother Henry came on the first Thursday of the month—the witness thought it was the fifth of June—and took her on a visit to ex-Governor Claflin, at Newtonville. On the second Sunday in June her brother preached in Murray's Church, Boston. The witness heard him. He stayed at Newtonville about a week and was not in New York during that visit nor away time enough to go half way there. This closed the examination and the counsel for the prosecution waived cross examination and a recess taken. Beecher came unattended into court shortly after the trial opened. Evarts was in court only a few minutes and taking no part in the proceedings. Fullerton did not arrive until after the cross examination of Storrs was finished.

Yellow Fever—Raiders.

WASHINGTON, March 31.

Captain Ransom, of the U. S. ship Colorado, reports that yellow fever is epidemic at Havana.

The Secretary of War has telegraphed to the commanding officer of the Department of Texas to use every effort to prevent Mexican raids across the Rio Grande.

Fire.

CHICAGO, March 31.

A fire at Fairburg, Ill., yesterday destroyed a number of stores and dwellings. The loss was $50,000, a part of which was covered by insurance.

Abdication.

PARIS, March 31.

The Bien Public publishes the following: The Emperor of Brazil proposes to abdicate in favor of his eldest daughter, Countess Duca. The Emperor, upon his abdication, will make the tour of Europe, after which he will proceed to the United States, where he will make his home.

Carlists Disagreeing.

LONDON, March 31.

Spanish advices state that notwithstanding the denials of the truth of the reports, there are dissensions among the Carlists. It is known beyond doubt that there are serious differences between Don Carlos and the Carlists' council at Navarre.

Jury Disagree.

CALCUTTA, March 31.

The trial of Guikewar of Baraula, on the charge of attempting to bribe the servants of the President to poison Colonel Phyre, the President, has resulted in the disagreement of the Commission before which the case was tried.

WESTERN DISPATCHES!

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

PACIFIC COAST.

Indian Feuds—Crops.

YREKA, March 31.

The Journal of this morning contains an account of a fatal shooting affray between Indians, on Klamath river, one of them being a boy formerly working for Dick Humphreys. He had a reputation of being a desperate character. Three Indians sought him to put him out of the way. A fight ensued with rifles. Dick's boy put a ball through the head of one of his assailant who fired at the same moment, the ball passing through the boy's body. Both died instantly, the other Indians mutilated the body of Dick's boy. Head Indians are taking steps to administer Indian justice on survivors.

Rain last week was a material benefit to crops in many parts of the county. Streams from the Siskiyou mountains higher than at any time previous this Winter. Sunday morning another shower which changed to snow.

Burned to Death.

GENOA, March 31.

The residence of Jno. Ledgway, about six miles southeast of here burned last night. This morning charred remains, supposed to be his, were discovered in the ruins. Mr. Ledgway was a single man living alone. The Coroner's inquest developed the probability that an Indian was seen prowling about there last night, murdered the man and afterwards set fire to the house. Sheriff Roan and posse are in pursuit of the Indian. Ledgway was a man much respected—a member of the Carson Valley Grange, 57 years old and a native of Yorkshire, England.

Lick's WHI-Wrestling Match—Etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.

John B. Felton is drawing up a new deed of trust for James Lick. Felton is credited with the statement that the only change will be making more liberal allowances to his relatives, some of whom months ago refused the requests of his former deed. The other gifts will be materially changed.

Little Mac accepts the challenge of Little Dwight to wrestle on the Roman plan, and should the match take place at the Opera House he will stake from $1,000 to $10,000 on the result. A tangle between the dwarfs would draw an immense audience.

Another shooting match is likely to come off between the Emmet Guards of Virginia City and the Summer Light Guards of San Francisco.

Bridge Washed Away—Lives Lost.

PORTLAND, March 31.

The bridge on Pudding river near Gervais was carried away on Thursday last. A man and his family with a team, and wagon is also reported to have gone down with the bridge and lost. Barkentine, Architect, on Monday evening attempted to sail over the Columbia bar but went ashore on Clatsop Spit off Port Adams. A tug went to assist but has not been able to reach the vessel at last accounts.
